

EXPOSITION WILL CLAIM MOST OF SOCIETY'S ATTENTION FOR WEEK; CUPID DOESN'T CARE

By RUTH MONRO AUGUR.

GOING to the exposition today? Of course you are! It is the one big thing in the minds of everybody in the city. It is going to stay right in the center of the spot light for a ten days' run, too. It is a wonderful opportunity to get acquainted with our neighbors and learn what they can do and how they do it. It also is a chance to find out how we ourselves check up in comparing the labor of our own hands and minds with those of our fellows.

No matter what particular groove your pet hobby or fad follows, you will be able to find an interesting part of the exposition in which that will be featured or at least discussed in lectures. That everyone is planning to be either fair goers or fair workers

VISITORS TO THE CITY AND TO THE EXPOSITION.

When we happen to be visiting a city or a Sunday we wonder as to which church to attend.

According to our make-up, one or other church will especially help.

The First Congregational Church is of the broader type, and if you wish for a liberal worship you will find a welcome there.

In accord with the civic welcome to the city, the subjects on Sunday will deal especially with city life. In the morning the subject will be "A Wise Man Saveth the City," and the evening subject will be "A Wise City Saveth the Man."

Take either a Fort Bliss, Highland Park, Gov't Hill, or Boulevard car, and ask to be put off at the eleventh hundred block at Williams street, and the church is one and a half blocks to the north.

THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Minister, THE REV. MILES HANSON.

this week is evidenced by the fact that many of the clubs that meet weekly have suspended their meetings until the exposition is over. El Paso women can boast as well as El Paso men, you see.

When the women really get out and get behind a thing—well, everybody knows that no church debt has yet been paid until the aid society took it in hand. Practically every woman's organization in the city has at least one finger in the exposition pie. The women of some club or organization is to be ministered to by the women, through the Mexican village, the tea room, coffee and sandwich stands and even by popcorn and peanut vendors. All of these things are managed by the women of some club or organization.

Mr. El Paso might as well plan to eat at least two of his daily meals at the exposition, for Mrs. El Paso will certainly be there most of the time.

Dan Cupid here insists that this is his entrance cut. He has a special day this week—Wednesday. The wedding of two very lovely El Paso girls will occur on that day. Thanks to some of these who know their way apart, so their mutual friends can be present at both ceremonies.

Miss Olive Southwick Davis and Charles Webster Simpkins will be married at 8 o'clock at the church of St. Clement. Miss Davis has been one of El Paso's most popular society girls. She has several times represented El Paso as its guestess at the San Jacinto Hotel in Austin, Texas.

She has also been maid of honor at this fiesta to other El Paso daughters. She has many friends here. All are regretting that her marriage is to take her so many miles away, to Brooklyn, N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Alma Hermine Morrison to David Lee Roy Perkins will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morrison, on Arizona street. The wedding is the culmination of a very sweet little romance begun during the bride's student days at El Paso High school and both young people are held in very genuine respect by those who know them.

The marriage of Miss Irma Lowenberg and Max Berliner will occur on Thursday. The bride is from Chihuahua, and the groom from Mexico city. Both are well known in this community. Their marriage will occur in the private dining room of Hotel Paso del Norte and will be followed by a wedding supper.

Now having satisfied Dan Cupid's demands, let's go back to the exposition. A large number of fair young women are coming here to represent their cities at the exposition. Miss Marie West, who is to be "Miss Oklahoma," is already here. El Paso is going to uphold its usual reputation for pleasant hospitality by doing all in its power to make the stay of these young women pleasant. The big affair of the week for them will be the grand ball to be given by "Miss El Paso" on Friday night in the exposition grounds. "Miss El Paso" (Miss Sarah Small) and mayor Tom Lea will lead the opening march and the sister city queens will follow. Shells, shells, shells, both local and visiting. Saturday night the students of the Texas School of Mines will give a grand ball in honor of the visiting queens. "Miss El Paso" will take them on sight-seeing trips so that they can see for themselves what a fine part of the world we live in and why we like it so well. Miss Edna Mathias, one of "Miss El Paso's" attendants, is going to give a bridge party for the sister city queens Wednesday. Mrs. Ruth Ordorff will entertain them with a dancing Thursday, at her home on Bliss street. Many other affairs are being planned. Miss Small is going to have an informal afternoon tea for her attendants on Tuesday afternoon.

The usual fortnightly dinner-dance of the Totipot club will attract many El Paso and army people and their guests this week. The club managers always provide some novel feature for a pleasant surprise; also, while in most important for those liking to dance, the attendance is limited, so the ball room floor is never uncomfortably crowded. The club will be at the officers' club at Fort Bliss and will be held Wednesday night. Very likely there will be another hop on Saturday night also; it is being discussed at this rate.

The West Yuleta Country club's Thursday night dance will attract the usual crowd.

Of the club's fortnightly meet during the week the Fortnightly club meets with Mrs. Ernest Depperman on Tuesday. Mrs. A. E. Mackie will entertain the Jolly Jinks on Wednesday. Mrs. Claude D. Hudspeth is to be hostess to the Tuesday Luncheon club. Mrs. Frank Langan will be hostess to the Friday Luncheon club. Saturday the alumni chapter of the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority will be entertained by Mrs. Percy McElroy.

Kyle is to give a tea on Friday for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Warren Kyle, of Boston, at her home on Bliss street.

The El Paso Equal Franchise league will hold its monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. S. S. Baker on Arizona street and an informal and interesting program will be given.

Dances.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick George Billings are planning to give a formal dance during the exposition. The ball will be at Austin street and Boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harper are the parents of a baby son, born Oct. 10, at their home on Bliss street. The baby will be named Mark Hadley Harper.

The usual dance of the El Paso Country Club will be omitted tonight, as the inclement weather will prevent the use of the tennis courts. Beginning October 15, the Country Club will give its Saturday night dance in the Totipot club building.

The Bohemian club gave a jolly dance Friday night in the ball room of the Elks club house. The club members were Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Broadbent, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jagon, Misses J. Evans and W. E. Kitchens. The girls present were Misses Sylvia Rivera, Irma Davis, Helen Krause, Jean Krause, Carol Mitchell, Lois Maier, Lucile Harlan, Katherine Rickman, Emily White, Irene Meyer, Mabel Woodruff, Dolly Evans, Myrtle Bedford, Isabelle White, Katherine Kitchens, Peggy Dinehart, Doris Freeman, Eileen Woodard, Gladys Mueller, Blanche Rose, Geraldine Meyer, Louise Crane, Mary McManis, Gladys Lundy, Marion Calman, Frances Meyer, Mary Tucher, Lucille Crenshaw, Eva Stevenson, Louise Leighton, Edna Belcher, Helen Worthington, Orl Walker, John Schaffert, Ted Platt, Robert Platt, Joe Magoroff, Sam Marshall, Ed Marsh, George Leighton, Fred Kitchens, Roy Davis, Emil Dittmer, Charles Thurston, Eugene Thurston, Roland Kemp, Errol Lapowski, Wilfred Krammer, Harry Jordan, Jack Ivy, Robert Williams, Raymond White, Atkins Bourdine, Clarence Thompson, Edwin Schwartz, Cecil Boyd, Chris Fox, Steve Aguirre, Bruce Evans, James Riggs, Alfred Black, William Brown, Dawson Bryan, Merrick Brock, Elliott Cheek, George Biefer, William Bias, Ralston Cooper, James Crenshaw, Hoyt Cole, Jack Donahue, Dewey Crenshaw, Robert Spencer, Darbyshire, Roy Gaylord, Jesse Fraser, Bill Hughes, Earl Webster, Kneeland Jenkins, Fred Rietz, Harry Ford, Claudius Smith, Eugene Smith and Herman Silberberg.

RHEUMATISM GOES IF HOOD'S IS USED
The genuine old reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla corrects the acid condition of the blood and builds up the whole system. It drives out rheumatism because it cleanses the blood. It has been successfully used for forty years in many thousands of cases the world over.

There is no better remedy for skin and blood diseases, for loss of appetite, rheumatism, stomach and kidney troubles, general debility, and all ailments arising from impure, impoverished, de-vitalized blood.

It is unnecessary to suffer. Start treatment at once. Get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla from your nearest druggist. You will be pleased with the results.—Adv.

Cards.

Mrs. Irma Lowenberg, whose marriage to Max Berliner will occur next Thursday, was the guest of honor at an informal bridge party given by Mrs. Louis Hess Friday afternoon. Mrs. Maurice Goldoft won the high score bridge prize and Mrs. C. A. Lowenberg the second prize. Mrs. Elsa Neufeld won the buncio prize. Mrs. Carrie Freudenstein assisted the hostess in serving a luncheon after the games.

Mrs. R. F. Albright entertained informally Friday afternoon with a bridge party, at her home, 392 Upson avenue. The guests were Mesdames John Arthur Rife of El Paso, J. R. Enlow, Kano Dierz, George B. Squires, Lillian Corcoran, James MacGoffin, Mary S. Buford, Al Kraft, W. E. Jamison, James R. Hill, Ballard Caldwell, Misses J. A. Caldwell and Alice Wolff. Mrs. Ballard Caldwell won the high score bridge prize. A luncheon was served by the hostess.

A pretty bridge-luncheon was given Thursday morning by Mrs. James W. Lewis at her home, 1014 Dallas street, in honor of her niece, Miss Callie Belle of American, Ga. When all the guests had arrived the players drew for their respective places at the card tables and an interesting hour of bridge followed. Dainty hand made work bags were awarded to those making the high score at each of the four tables. The winners of these were Mrs. Carl C. Jones, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mrs. Edna E. Jones, Mrs. E. Jones. The guest prize, a box of mints, was presented Miss Belle. Raisin kaisen and salted almonds were served during the games. After the prizes had been awarded a two course luncheon was served. The favors were suggestive of the fall and autumn colors. Golden brown were used in the refreshments. The guests were Mesdames R. B. Bell, E. L. Davidson, Frank R. Lewis, C. Joseph Oral, Clark, J. E. Franklin, Troy H. Middleton, Charles C. Drake, Edward Sigler, Joseph Woodcock, Cyrus A. Dolph, David O. Byard, Samuel D. Willis, H. E. Ely, Joseph C. Kay, Clement H. Wright, Misses Callie Belle, May Wood, Evelyn Lewis, T. W. Waller, W. E. Jones, Zella Prater, Fannie Lou Yeager and Lillian Yeager.

Mrs. Ron Lewis, who has recently made El Paso their home, was the guest of honor at a bridge party given by Mrs. R. H. Lewis Friday afternoon, at her home on Grant avenue. Quaint little bows tied the flower baskets and vases. Mrs. V. E. Raggio won the first prize, Mrs. C. Sutton the second and Mrs. K. D. Franklin the third. A guest prize was given Mrs. Lewis. A luncheon followed the games. Mrs. Lewis was assisted by Mrs. T. W. Taylor, Mrs. R. H. Oliver and Miss Kate Lewis. The guests were Mesdames Ben Lewis, T. M. Waller, W. E. Jones, M. C. McKee, Frank A. Spence, J. C. Ross, T. F. Kimball, C. M. Lyman, V. E. Raggio, E. W. Spence, W. E. Jones, H. E. Ely, Spinnell, W. E. Miller, Ralph Dimmitt, Ben L. Clements, Claude H. Hudspeth, W. R.
